

Young Company Scholarships

Thanks to the Joseph H. Shoctor Fund we are able to offer several partial scholarships towards the cost of tuition. These scholarships enhance community accessibility to our programs and provide students with the opportunity to train in the performing arts. Following in the spirit of these donations, recipients may be asked to volunteer and/or participate in certain Young Company, Foote Theatre School, or other Citadel Theatre related activities.

The Citadel Theatre Young Companies assesses scholarship applications based on the following criteria:

1. Financial need
2. A demonstrated commitment to study
3. Artistic potential
